- (1) "Eat More Veggies" and "Reduce Screen Time" are the main themes of the "StartSmart@school.hk" Campaign in the school year 2025/26. The activity dates are from 2 November (Sunday) to 29 November (Saturday) and the activity booklet will be distributed on 31 October. Parents only need to observe what your children can do and put the stickers in the 'Little Healthy Fighter and Healthy Living Logbook', and bring it back to the class teacher for review every week. After completing the activity in four weeks, students will receive a certificate as an encouragement. Please bring the booklet back to the class teacher on 1 December (Monday) for counting.
- (2) Our School participated in the "My Pledge to Act" - "Be grateful and treasure what we have, stay positive and optimistic" school-based learning activities organized by the Education Bureau. The theme of this year will be "Inherit Traditional Culture, Be Patriotic And Love Hong Kong" and "Be Diligent and Law-abiding, Perform Acts of Kindness" with the purpose of helping students establish a healthy lifestyle and cultivate good moral character to promote whole-person development. Our school will hold the "My Pledge to Act" kick-off ceremony in the school on 5 November (Wednesday). At the same time, we will lead students to set goals and put them into practice to cultivate them into good citizens who value promises, have a sense of responsibility, and are brave to take actions.
- (3) Students will take the first dose of influenza vaccination on 14 November (Friday). Parents accompanying your children for the vaccination are requested to queue up to wait outside the west door according to the time written on the previous notice.
- (4) As the weather is getting cold, our school will change to winter uniforms completely on 10 November (Monday). Before this date, parents can decide winter or summer uniforms according to their children's physical condition. After changing to winter school uniforms, if the temperature in Tuen Mun District reaches 15°C or below, students can wear thick coats back to school, and girls can also wear school sportswears to class on Tuesdays and Thursdays. In order to establish a neat and clean image for our students, if the temperature in Tuen Mun District is 15°C or above, the coat worn must be pure white color or a school jacket (a windbreaker jacket with a fleece-soled long-sleeved jacket inside, which can be worn separately) Boys: black shoes, white short socks. Girls: black shoes, white short socks or white stockings. Parents can call 1878200 to check the weather conditions on that day before going to school.
- (5) Scout Oath-taking Ceremony will be held on 24 November (Monday). For details, please refer to the notice of scout activity distributed on that day. Parents are requested to sign the reply slip and return it to class teacher by 28 October.
- (6) The 25th PTA committee election completed. The positions are as follows:
